To Whom It May Concern:

Deborah Bancroft began reviewing for the Puget Sound Council in January 2006. She has been a consistent and reliable reviewer providing two to three reviews each month. Her concise yet thorough and thoughtful reviews help PSC in its efforts to deliver to its membership and to other readers of the newsletter the information needed to make collection development choices that are appropriate to their collections and their users. The collective work of reviewers like Deborah makes it possible to continue this service which benefits young readers and the libraries that serve them. PSC appreciates Deborah's contribution to this effort.

Sincerely,
